Dear Steve,

Thank you for the explanation. I understand the rationale for the account now. I agree with your thoughts. With this bank account only and no services in the state, there does not appear to be any Hawaii filing requirements.

Best regards,
Doreen

Doreen,

i am planning to open an account for SS-USA in Hawaii. We need the account because i need to pay legal expenses related to the Thompson lawsuit that i don't want Cindy Thompson to see. As you know, Cindy handles all disbursements related to SS-USA. However, her boss is Ron Thompson, and we are suing him to recover a $10million payment made to him by LC Hotel and Spa Corporation. .

i suppose we could pay this out of SS-Hawaii accounts and show this as an advance. But the thought process in Japan is to have an account set aside for this.

if the account is set-up, SS-USA will have no other activity in Hawaii other than this account. The mailing address for the bank statement will probably be here in Japan or with Tom Hayes. We will prepare check payments here in Japan.

based on this kind of activity, i don't think there are any filing requirements in Hawaii. The amount of interest income is miniscule anyway.

any comments?

Looks like the potential withholding issue may not be an issue. Let's discuss.

Howard,

I will get an accounting for you within the next couple of days. There are three accounts in Japan held by the trustee that are in the name of SS-USA and certain subsidiaries. They were not recorded as loan collections on the books of SS-Japan. The biggest one being the $6million return of the holdback account of La Costa.

We do not want to make Cindy aware of these matters, due to the ongoing lawsuit which includes the company she works for as a defendant.

I'm confused.
 What SSH or LC accounts are in Japan?
 I thought that any transfers to Japan were put into SSJ accounts.

Machida-san,

the LC and SS-Hawaii accounts held in Japan need to be included and accounted for in the SS-USA financials.

Can you send copies of bank balances and charges to the account, so Grant Thornton can book them properly?

Or do you prefer to treat them as return of loans to SS-Japan?

Are there any other accounts other than the above two accounts?

If you want Nakamura-san to work on this, it would be more efficient for him to work directly with Yoko Mori of my office.
